

THE COMING TRANSFORMATION

A PROPHETIC WORD FOR SWITZERLAND, MAY 2016

JOHN E. SAGOE

A Prophetic Word for Switzerland

God is about to honor this nation again. Anytime a heavy rain is about to fall, the clouds become thick and the thicker the clouds, the heavier the rain. At the moment there are about 3-4% „born again“ Christians in Switzerland. Yet God is about to raise up this nation. This is not a revival we are talking about, but it is a transformation, which is about to take place in this nation of Switzerland.

We are the generation that will experience this total transformation, total salvation, total upliftment, which is about to happen. Things are being prepared now.

God is about to shift Switzerland back into the spiritual map of Christianity, people will hear about this nation. Christ will show up and many things will happen.

Picture of a pregnant woman:

(this is the season we are living in now)

I see a pregnant woman who is about to give birth and the labor pain has started, the water is about to break and the baby is about to be pushed out. We are living in a season whereby a lot of prophets are going to rise in this nation.

The picture of the pregnant woman: the Lord is saying that the labor pain has begun and the water is about to break and it will not be long. There are certain signs that will begin to happen so that we will know that this prophecy is about to come true. God didn't give specific dates or seasons for it. We cannot predict God's time table. But there will be particular signs.

Signs:

1. Families in Switzerland will begin to experience supernatural deliverance. In many homes in Switzerland one person will rise up for Jesus. There will be a representative of Christ in increasingly more homes. From within the families there will be somebody who is rising for Jesus Christ, who doesn't take nonsense, somebody who will speak out, somebody who will defend the things of God, somebody who will stand for the truth, somebody who will stand for purity, somebody who will stand against abortion, somebody who will stand against atrocity, somebody who will stand against any abominable act within the family. This person will rise and will stand up against any of these things.
2. There will be an intensification of quarreling in families. These quarrels are not for a bad reason. It is because people start taking their stand. It might be, that even husbands and wives will have disagreements.
3. The Lord says, that the spirit of neutralism is destroying homes and it will crumble down. It will start in families when many people will start taking their stand and they will no longer tolerate neutralism. When people start taking their stand, healing starts coming into their homes. It will become difficult for those, who will not clearly take a stand. The spirit of neutralism will be broken, and depending on those who actually take their stand, many souls can be won for Christ as fast as possible.
4. We will begin to hear odd hour prayers. People will receive the urge to pray during odd hours. Some people will be praying at midnight or 01am or 02am. They will also pray during their break time at their working places. People will get a sincere passion for prayer and we will see how in different working places Christians will connect with each other, forming prayer groups and interceding for the company, for the city, the region. Even if there are only two Christians, they will come together and pray during their break time. If they have 1 hour break they will invest about 30 – 40 minutes to intercede. It is God's strategy for He is preparing His people and this will happen across the nation of Switzerland.

5. We will begin to see how bad things we have never heard happen before will increase but we shouldn't worry, it will alert the people to take their stand. All of a sudden you will hear things like somebody is missing, or things like there is a catastrophe but we don't know how it happened. We will hear things like stealing is going to increase but it is a part of the labor pain, don't forget.

God is saying He is in a hurry. He is raising prophets. Watch out for everything that has been shared, because it will surely come to pass.

6. People will literally have divine encounters. It means that people will begin to see God for themselves. There will be so much thirst and hunger for the supernatural that people will encounter God for themselves. There will be so much revelation of who Jesus is, that we don't need to do much anymore for people to go to church. People will have visions and dreams like never before, others will go through a trance - when they come out from the trance, their lives will be transformed. Some will have open revelations, some will have open visions, others will encounter a divine visitation just by reading the Word of God. Some will hear the audible voice of God. Literally, God will walk into their room, bedroom and into their houses.

When people begin to testify towards these six things, please don't doubt anymore - know that the time for Switzerland has come.
